

Territorial Constitution (Bylaws) of the Minnesota Mounted Shooters Association.

ARTICLE I - STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The purpose of this club shall be to participate in the sport of cowboy mounted shooting. To provide an outlet for those persons wishing to compete in this sport, encourage safe handling of firearms and to help educate all individuals in all aspects of this sport including good horsemanship. We shall abide by the rules set forth in the Cowboy Mounted Shooting Rule book. We will promote family participation and the preservation of old west values and period clothing, good sportsmanship, and patriotism. The club officers will follow the guidelines set forth in the following articles and shall administer the affairs of this club.

ARTICLE II - NAME

The name of this club shall be MINNESOTA MOUNTED SHOOTERS ASSOCIATION. Also herein referred to as "the club", or "MMSA".

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

There will be three classes of membership in the MMSA:

A. Single memberships

Single membership is open to all persons 18 years of age and above. Single members will be eligible to vote and have one vote per membership.

B. Family memberships

Family membership will include husband and wife and immediate family members 17 years of age or younger. Family members (husband/wife) 18 years of age and above will be eligible to vote and have one vote per person. Family members under 18 years of age will not be eligible to vote.

C. Associate Memberships

Associate members shall be non-rider members with an interest in being involved in and/or supporting the MMSA. Associate members are eligible to vote except by proxy.

ARTICLE IV - DUES

Membership dues for MMSA are to be paid on the calendar year. New members joining MMSA August 1st and thereafter shall pay dues of ½ the annual rate. Membership dues for all classes of membership shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Resignation of a club member will not constitute the return of club dues.

SUSPENSION AND/OR EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

Club officers may put any member on suspension that has through his or her actions:

- 1) Caused or has the potential to cause personal injury to themselves, another person, property or livestock
- 2) Has projected their actions to appear to be of undesirable character.
- 3) Has conducted themselves in a manner unbecoming of the MMSA.
- 4) Has been abusive or treated their horse in any otherwise inhumane fashion.
- 5) Has acted in an unsafe manner in the handling of firearms.

A member will be expelled from MMSA for total disregard for the welfare of the club, members, and/or the public for his or her actions of blatant disregard of safety, or multiple suspensions, by majority vote of members that are in attendance at a meeting called by club officers. Such a meeting called by the officers shall be convenient to the majority of club membership, with a minimum of 14 days notice.

ARTICLE V – OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

A seven (7) person Board of Directors will govern the Minnesota Mounted Shooters Association, and they will be known as the Vigilance Committee. The Board will consist of the club officers: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, last year's president and two Directors at large elected by the membership. The President shall chair the board. It is the responsibility of the Board of Directors to determine club policy and procedure. In the event of a vacancy in the Board, a membership meeting will be called to elect a new board member. If a conflict of interest where a board member may be a party or in the event that more than 1 board member is involved as party to a conflict of interest needing to be settled by a board vote, that member/members shall relinquish their voting rights to the remaining board members. There must be a quorum of board members to render a decision. A quorum of board members shall consist of 5 regular members. If a quorum of board members cannot be met, the dispute shall be voted on by a quorum of the general membership (11 members or more). The Minnesota Mounted Shooters Association will have four officers consisting of:

President - The President will preside over and prepare agenda for all meetings. He will appoint committee chairmen for all committees to carry out the programs of the MMSA. Committee chairmen will select their own committee members and determine the correct number to conduct the task set forth. The President shall be the representative of the MMSA and have the authority to sign all papers required for ongoing business. The President shall cast the deciding vote in the event of a tie. In the case of the President's inability to act, the Vice President shall be the immediate successor. The President shall be responsible for approving any and all club expenditures over $50.

Vice President - The Vice President shall perform all the duties of the President in his absence. Upon permanent absence of the President, the Vice President shall assume the duties of President for the duration of his term, declare the Vice President's office vacant, and call for election to fill the Vice President's office.

Secretary - The Secretary shall record the minutes of all board meetings. The Secretary shall also be responsible for keeping all membership records in order including the collection of all dues and entry fees. The Secretary shall be responsible for all correspondence. The Secretary will also have authority, with board approval, to sign all papers required for ongoing business.

Treasurer - The Treasurer shall record all gifts, donations, and financial transactions of the Board in an accepted bookkeeping method. The Treasurer shall provide current financial reports at each regularly scheduled meeting and a yearly financial statement. All financial records will be available to the board upon request. The Treasurer shall deposit all funds of the Association in such bank or banks as designated by the Board. The Treasurer will have checking writing authority to conduct ongoing business. The Treasurer must have the written or electronic approval of the President prior to writing any checks over $50.

Officers and Board Members – No officer, board member, or members shall be compensated for his or her services.
